HERITAGE
ST. ANNE'S CHAPEL

St. Anne's Chapel is located at the edge of the Chatillon's woods (hill between Vittel and Norroy). At the foot of a beautiful oak tree, the Chapel hides an altarpiece depicting the 12 apostles from the XVIth century, whose heads were broken. This viewpoint has a pretty viewpoint on the Vair's valley.

> The hiking trail begin in the Vittel park. The departure sign is located at the beginning of the alley along the thermal gallery

1. Turn your back on the departure sign, use the tarred road, go beyond the Congress Center. Reach the park entrance, find the departure of the hiking trail “du parc aux lacs”.
2. Cross the road to walk up the “avenue des Tilleuls”. Keep going and go beyond the intersection on the left to keep walking in the “Avenue de Châtillon”.
3. After around 180 m, turn left to use a large track with small pebbles.
4. At the end of the bend, cross the road to walk up the street “du Point de Vue”. At the end ,keep walking straight forward on the earthy path. Enter the woods on about 50 m. Turn left to walk down on the D18.
5. Cross this road, follow the path facing, that is first straight, then snakes in a slope. At the end, turn right on a stony track that leads to the St. Anne’s Chapel. Take the graveled trail and keep going until reaching the cross on the side road.
6. Turn right, then almost immediately left on the first turn on the left. A little bit further, turn left to walk along a park. When arriving on a small road, walk down on the right to find a bench.
7. Walk down then cross the D18. Keep walking straight by using the woods track.
8. At the end of the trail, turn left and keep walking until a small uphill, climb it. Turn left on a small track.
9. Cross the road, turn right. A the end of the large path, reach the health resort.
