ST BASLE CHAPEL

It is mid XVth century that a chapel dedicated to Saint Basle is built by Jean the IIIrd of Lignéville. It was just rectangular chapel whose bay was constituted of a ribbed vault. In XVIth century, it was extended by an entrance bay forming a nave and a side bay that will serve as a funeral chapel. These extensions date back from 1522, a proven by a foundation stone sealed into the interior wall of the choir.

KEEP DOGS ON A LEASH · STAY ON MARKED PATHS · PACK OUT YOUR LITTER · OPEN FIRES PROHIBITED · RESPECT CROSSINGS · BE QUIET IN NATURE · CAUTION: HUNTING SEASON · EMERGENCY NUMBERS

1. With your back to the starting sign, take Avenue du Haut du Fol on the right-hand side. Turn right onto Rue Jean Bouin. Take the left-hand sidewalk.
2. Turn left onto Rue Marcel Cerdan and continue to the intersection. Continue straight ahead onto a narrow path that runs along the fence behind the police station. When you reach a lawn, continue to the roundabout.
3. Turn right onto Rue de la Samaritaine. Pass an intersection, cross the bridge, then in the bend, take the right-hand lane and cross the D68 road.
4. Continue straight ahead on Rue de Rougibois, then take the second street on the left, called Rue du Bruant Jaune. You will reach a roundabout.
5. Turn right onto Rue Poiriéloup. Continue straight ahead. Cross a bridge and take a slightly uphill gravel path.
6. Turn right at the top and continue in this direction for just over a kilometer.
7. Go down the path on the left along the hedge, then turn right to reach the village of Lignéville. At the junction with the D68, cross straight ahead, continue along the road and then the path to cross the Belle Fontaine stream. Further on, you will reach the Haut-du-Chandelier junction.

> Option to turn left to visit the Saint Basle chapel (1.5 km, 40 min round trip)

8. Carefully follow the road opposite. Take the straight path on the right.
9. Cross the bridge over the D165. Reach the Hazeau golf course and turn left.
10. At the entrance to the woods, turn left and follow the edge. When you reach a path coming from the footbridge, turn right then left to find the alley that leads to the sports training center.
